

1 Character is a standard block number, letter, or symbol. Any deviations from standard add a character

Examples:

Non-standard block characters and symbols:

A character intersecting another character adds 1 character due to the increased complexity of building the iron.

A character placed inside of another character adds an additional character.

Examples of 2 characters:

Examples of 3 characters:

Examples of 4 characters:

5 Characters:

